Central Purpose

The central purpose of the District of Columbia Judicial Nomination Commission (JNC) is to screen, select, and recommend candidates to the President of the United States for his consideration in appointing judges to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals and Superior Court of the District of Columbia. The JNC also appoints the chief judges of both courts.

Key Facts

The JNC advertises judicial vacancies, solicits applications, conducts background investigations, carefully reviews investigative materials, reads briefs and other application materials, interviews applicants, solicits and considers input from the bench, bar, and public regarding applicants' fitness to serve, and carefully evaluates each candidate's application and background. The JNC also appoints the chief judges of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals and Superior Court of the District of Columbia.

Goals/Performance Measures

JNC's goal is to increase the pool of highly qualified applicants to fill each judicial vacancy within the required 60-day period either prior to or following the occurrence of a vacancy in accordance with the agency's governing statute.

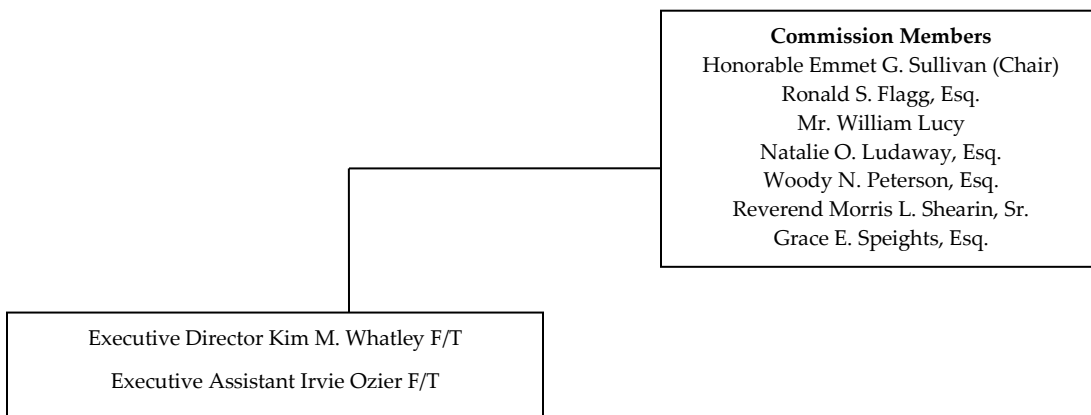

Programs/Services

The new JNC online application system (JAS) will streamline the application process and improve the quality of information received by the JNC to enable the JNC members to review applications and relate background investigation results in a more efficient manner.

First Quarter CY2015 Hot Button Issue(s)

One of the hot button issue(s) will be to see the impact that the new online application process will have on applicants.
